Cross Country Champions
Good luck to our Cross Country Team for tomorrow’s Lower North Coast carnival in Kempsey. Please meet Mr Moodie at the WPS tent at the venue to have your name marked off. When you leave make sure an adult signs you out with Mr Moodie. Please wear full WPS sports uniform with school hat as you are representing our school. Hopefully, I’ll be on the finish line to congratulate you on your achievement.

Radio Stars
Congratulations to the boys and girls who took to the air waves last night under the guidance of Mrs Dignum, Mrs Stephens and Miss Gedeller. What a great experience! Thank you to Flynn D, Amarli H, Grace B, Jayda M, Max P, Tiana D, Shyla C, Chloe H, Emily B and Maddison S.

Sport
Congratulations to Stella T, Izaac B, Noah C and Lachlan W who have been selected in the Lower North Coast Touch Football teams and will attend North Coast trials at Grafton in Week 8.

Special Education Building
Work has commenced on the construction of a ramp and awning at the front of our Special Education room on Campbell Street. This area will obviously be fenced off. We expect the project to be six weeks in duration weather permitting. As a result parents and children will have to access the school at an alternative entry. All class members should have received a separate note on Tuesday notifying parents/carers of this disruption. Thank you in advance for your understanding.

Amazing Speeches!
Congratulations to the wonderfully talented boys and girls who presented speeches last Thursday in the Public Speaking competition. I thought you were all brilliant and I know it would have been very difficult for the adjudicator to select the eventual winner in each grade.

Our student leaders Ebony D, Mia W, Izaac B and Tom F did a great job presenting the assembly. Thank you Cheryl W, Georgie D, Hannah A, Harrison L, Lachlan W and Genevieve R for your contributions. Thank you Mr Leighton from Wauchope High School for adjudicating and special thanks to Mrs Muir for coordinating the event.

Congratulations to the grade winners: Hailey R, Ellie R, Mikaela R and Ebony D.
I loved the variety of topics that were spoken about. We heard about topics such as “How to Hide Your Most Hated Vegetable – The Brussell Sprout, Best Moments of My Life So Far, Happiness, Tribute to the Anzacs, What it would be like to be 10 Metres Tall, The Twins, My Family, Getting Out of Homework.

Some quotes from various speeches were:
“Life’s too short to be anything but happy”.
“Brothers – Can’t live with them and can’t live without them”.
“Give your dog an extra cuddle tonight and be thankful it is not a cat!”
“Mum sent my homework off to be framed as it was so good. I’ll hand it in in a few weeks when I get it back”.
“Aliens took my homework as a sign of life”
“I had a new brother and sister who happened to be twins. After a while I wanted to send them back!”

Billabong Zoo Visit
Kindergarten enjoyed a wonderful day at the Billabong Zoo yesterday. The weather was perfect and the Billabong staff took wonderful care of us as we enjoyed meeting a variety of interesting animals. The students were so well behaved that by the time we arrived back at school Mr Stone, the Park Manager, had already phoned to pass on the message that Wauchope Public School were the best Kindergarten group to ever visit the zoo. Congratulations Kindergarten and well done teachers and helpers!
